Dearest Rene I am sorry for not thanking you for your letter before leaving Nibthorpe & also for not writing from Evening Standard — I enjoyed that story fully but art work I must say I enjoyed it. I say I enjoyed it most when the Duke says Damn your flowery roses — she was a very kindly-kin was she — I wonder the Emperor gave her a good thrashing, most of them a bigger threat than trident business — I wonder who wrote it — I liked also learning Shakespeare & joining the army. Etc. Suppose what awfully bad stuff I can read with pleasure also the Empire & Co. I wonder why perhaps because it was like modern times in a way — I'm writing in bed — it's pouring with great rain & beating on the window pains. I've been awfully miserable & horrible & not well & I ran my head accidentally against a great stone ~~xxx~~ sticking out

Oh I wish you could see all the lovely views I'm having!!
Oh I wish you could see all the lovely views I'm having!!

on the Esplanade & that was lovely horrible – it was a great crash & grazed me head right through my green hat & mid of hair. – I felt like Tarkins when Odulle hit him I have not heard from Prudence since I'm left – * I wonder when she is.
I do wish I cd hear from her.
I must go & sleep – I wonder how you are. Bon soir all – for ma like a frogg but cheerioes

Tuesday 3 pm. Had lovely long long letter from Prudence this morning & am a nice pair of socks that fit, & 1 the colour of a pale limes & two Trollop books I had not read. to wit Dr Thorn & the Vicar of Bullhampton – dear Prudence she'd been scouring half Sussex for a nice farm house for me to stay in.
but its difficult to find – I'm waiting for the Doctor to see me he wanted to see me again – I went to him when I hit my rapper – they may crimb me for neglect of Brigade standing orders.. re wearing shrapnel helmets in the forward area – for all ranks.. they ask 2m under this – same as Pte self respecting minds. – by the way has G. Gill had his sentence, (pending under Field Courts Marshal) promulgated yet — poor Mugger. (In reply to me same time back. this serious crime of self inflicted wounds in hand. In remedies).

He doctor told & say his always told want he to ng smoke ten cigarettes a day - & have bath in morning instead of night. & do some physical jerks each morning & bigger bigger bigger & rest half an hour before dinner & lunch & ng drink 2 glasses a day. — He is nice - but his always the same staff "Dot" are I've warned about any things" — am I worried me arse what do I've - read - let me see — Dear Let me look - "The nature of Belief." 'Shakespeare. 'Medieval Religion.' — I skimmed it I skimmed it trouble to mind with any dictionary I've known - what do I've read I've copy literature Ah well — well ch - ch - well - I've known that the bigger of it — well I like 'alice in Wonderland' if I want to have a good laugh. — It is it half entertaining — & the poor chap was dying to be good & useful. & helpful — His awfully nice

Anyway I suppose this about — he did all the red stuff heart, blood reflexes — empty — & said I am absolutely as well as ever be. By time tests — Dr was I trotted with the red phonoes — M says how ah!
what this — I say what's this — says ng in the manner of all men — humans Nature. — Dr says ah. yes: Tom is coming on Thursday — I hope he have a nice time.
How are I'm dear Rene — all this Quarter about myself — & Dear Dear Jan
I do send you lots & lots of love & Easter Greetings — I may not get in another letter before then — Prudence says I can tackle her knee to do my socks — problem I'm both & keep you happy & no mistake.
& now it will get a bit warmer.
I know there was a lot I wanted to say but can't think what it was I must go for a short walk.
All reviews for now —
Came back. — the wind is bitter biting & penetrating — half gale I'm

The S.S.W. has arrived in the E.
– it seems.
I bought the Everyman Edition of the O.T.
& having scrubbed it well – torn out all the junk – stuck down the heavy end-papers – put labels on the back & side – proceeded to read – what do you find – text seriously tampered with – who is this Rev. Bruce Revised Taylor I shall be obliged to know – It seems so clearly silly to print the Authorised Version practically as it stands & then tinker with it here & there & not say where – the has the cheek to tinker in a feeble tyke of way with the Song of Deborah – I don't mind how many chaps translate the bible – but I do wish they would do it all through if they can't or won't – mess about as they But I do like having the bible in a fashion that you can take to pubs or anywhere & read unobserved, I must say – Is the thing I've been printing just A.V. or some doctored version? Let me know.

here is an example in Deborah ©

AV

The mountains melted from before the Lord Even that Sinai from before the Lord God of Israel.

Mass shifting is not it

The inhabitants of the villages ceased they ceased in Israel; until that I Deborah arose, that I arose a mother in Israel.

Mr Bruce-Taylor

The mountains quailed at the presence of the Lord, the God of Israel Even yon Sinai at the presence of the Lord, the God of Israel.

Get out.
Cringe off.

The villages were unoccupied in Israel they were unoccupied.
Until that then Deborah arose, then arose a mother in Israel.

I ask you — 'this is restore the obvious meaning of the original' —
Sorry for all this — my boring stuff God bless — you problem Joan. Love to all much love. David.

You will note that the villages were unoccupied.
